

Eastern University/Mission Year Non-Degree Transient Studies

Mission Year is pleased to offer you the opportunity to earn 6 academic credits (semester units) in each of two semesters through Eastern University. The Urban Issues I and II courses will relate your Mission Year experiences to theoretical content. The Field Experience and Internship courses provide an academic framework for experiential learning. Requirements consist of academic reading, short papers and journaling. Books are provided by Mission Year. Approved applicants will receive more information about course assignments and due dates. Course descriptions and further information is available on the Mission Year website and by contacting Chris Lahr: chris@missionyear.org.
